WHEREAS, The people of the United States and of South Dakota have a rich ethnic heritage which spans many centuries and a heritage which has expanded dramatically in recent centuries; and,

WHEREAS, It is imperative that each generation learn from preceding generations to become an educated and functional society; and,

WHEREAS, It is appropriate to establish the week in which Thanksgiving Day falls each year to recognize our rich heritage; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota has a rich cultural heritage, with many races, nationalities and religions represented in our State; and,

WHEREAS, It would be beneficial for each of us to reflect upon our own heritage, while at the same time learning more about our fellow South Dakotans' varied heritage;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 18-24, 1979, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Nine
